MEXICO CAN CLOSE DOORS OF SCHOOLS

Court Gives Government Right to Shut Religious, Educational Institutions

LOCK UP ASYLUM

Case Arises Out of Attempt of Asylum Authorities to Oppose Government

Mexico City (AP)—A court test of the Mexican government's right to close religious and educational institutions has resulted in victory for the government. The authorities of Franciscan asylum filed an application for an injunction with the district court in an endeavor to prevent an execution of an order to close all religious and educational institutions and churches where foreign born priests officiate.

The Colegio Nuestra Señora Pilar, an educational institution, was closed Monday without incident or arrests. Only one American thus far in the interior of Mexico has been involved in the government's plan to close all religious and educational institutions and churches where foreign born priests officiate.

She is Margaret M. Semple, Mother Superior of the Catholic Academy at Corcoran.

WILL LEAVE MEXICO

It is understood that "Madame Semple" as she described herself to the American embassy, is considering leaving Mexico, regardless of whether or not her deportation is being considered. The government has not announced whether it intends to deport foreign nuns.

Dispatches from Eagle Pass, Texas, say that the Rev. J. L. Phillips, president of the "People's" institution of Pedras Negras, just across the Rio Grande, and seven women teachers who were given 24 hours to leave Mexico, have arrived in Eagle Pass. The school has been supported by the Methodist Episcopal church of the south. Mr. Phillips said the school was ordered closed.

The Mexican students gave vent to tears when the American were ordered out and the townspeople held a demonstration of sympathy. The teachers were confining their instructions of the children to the English language and no religion in any form was being imparted. Texas text books were used.

When Primitive Man Discovered Fire

He made his biggest step in the direction of civilization. And each new use he found for it put him higher up the scale of human pre-eminence.

In much the same way do the present day inhabitants of Appleton gain dominion over their buying, selling, renting or hiring troubles when they discover the classified section of the Post-Crescent.

Mrs. S. Leith, 1108 W. 8th street, has just discovered that it requires three days to secure six glass plates. For within that time after her ad appeared, announcing that she wanted to buy a gas plate, six plates were offered her and a very satisfactory one was secured.

When YOU have furniture to sell or want to buy some, call 543 and ask for an ad taker and YOU will discover how efficient the classified is.

DRY MEN RAID "HOSPITAL" IN LIQUOR SEARCH

Chicago (AP)—Informed that rather robust patients frequented the institution, prohibition agents raided the 12th Park hospital Monday as the liquor crisis of a businessmen's welfare association whose membership of 700 are alleged to have paid $10 yearly for medical examination and attention.

The agents arranged the "doctor," J. T. Norton, after no patients were found and began an inquiry to discover in what form the club members have been taking their treatment.

Measure Allots $15,256,000
to Army Air Service, Calls for 118,583 Men

Washington, D. C.—(AP)—The war department appropriation bill carrying $229,500,000 was passed Tuesday by the house.

As sent to the senate the measure allots $15,256,000 to the army air service and authorizes the service to let contracts for $3,000,000 in addition. The direct appropriation is an increase of $345,500 above current funds. The armory would be continued at its present strength, 118,583 men and 11,749 officers.

The bill also carries a lump sum appropriation of $50,000,000 for rivers and harbors work.

All items were approved practically without change.

This amount is about two-fifths of that recommended by Rear Admiral Moffett, naval air chief, as necessary to provide a adequate air service for an emergency.

Final decision on the program is expected by the committee Wednesday and it adopted a bill to authorize this expenditure probably will be introduced in the next day or so by Chairman Butler.

In its present form the program would authorize an annual expenditure of $20,000,000 for five years.

JURY IS DEADLOCKED IN FORGERY TRIAL

The jury which heard the case against Leona Mealy Bell, alias Edna Wilson, alleged check forger, was still deadlocked at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon after it had been closed since 11:30 Tuesday morning. There was little prospect that a decision would be reached until late in the afternoon.

The entire morning was occupied with the question of identity. Miss Bell denying that she was in Appleton on Feb. 14. She said she was in Green Bay on that day. She challenged the state to identify her as the woman who cashed the forged checks at the Spector and Kamps stores.

Selections of the jury was completed Monday afternoon and the trial was started immediately.

Miss Bell was charged with passing forged checks at the Kamps and Spector jewelry stores here on Feb. 14. She sought extradition to Wisconsin after returning to Chicago.

FIRE DAMAGES TALL BUILDING IN NEW YORK

Firemen Wage Successful
Fight on Blaze 40 Stories

New York (AP)—Forty stories above Broadway, firemen Tuesday waged a successful and spectacular battle against fire in the $30,000,000 Equitable building, one of the largest office structures in the world.

Most of the damage, estimated at $60,000, was in the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth floor offices of Daniel Guggenheim and the American Smelting and Refining Co.

The blaze originated in the basement of the sky scraper which is located in the heart of the financial district near Wall Street and leaped up a shaft containing steam pipes and electric cables to the eleventh, sixteenth, twenty-fourth and thirty-fourth floors, skipping those intervening.

Four engineers and repairmen were trapped in the pent house, a three story superstructure on the roof, chiefly containing elevator machinery, and were found by firemen on a narrow ledge, 43 stories above street level, nearly 400 feet up. The only ladder available was short and was placed on the shoulders of the tallest firemen to reach the trapped men.

Firemen carried hose to the upper floors in the elevators, which operated continuously with the exception of one which stalled between the twenty-eighth and twenty-ninth floor with five firemen. They had to shop their way out.

The old Equitable building on the same site was destroyed in a spectacular blaze, Jan. 9, 1912. In that fire the water froze almost before touching the burning building and the ice coated structure smoldered for days afterward. Millions of dollars in securities were found safe in the vaults.

COURT SAVES 3 FROM HANGING

Writ of Supersedas Is Granted
by Illinois Supreme Court Tuesday

Springfield, Ill.—(AP)—Granting a writ of supersedas, the state supreme court Tuesday saved three Chicagoans from hanging next Friday.

Henry Bernickes, John Mannery, and Daniel L. McGeoghegan, all under death sentence, were granted their appeals and a review of the evidence on which they were convicted.

Action of the supreme court merely suspended execution of sentence until it was determined whether the three men received a fair trial. Oral arguments in support of their appeal will be heard in the April term of court.

Should the decision uphold that of the lower court, the date of execution will be set by the supreme court. Should it reverse the lower court, the men would likely be sent back for a new trial.

WOMEN CONTINUE FIGHT AGAINST BILL BOARDS

Milwaukee (AP)—Further elimination of bill boards is urged by club women who are urging the Greater Wisconsin association to press the campaign.

Mrs. F. J. Kreiner of Oconto Falls, chairman of the federation of women's clubs, wrote: "We are losing the value of the state's beauty, and we hope the Greater Wisconsin association will take an active part in the campaign to further restrict this commercialization of scenery of the state."

Similar letters are on file from others, including Miss Katherine Merrill of Green Bay.

CHICAGO CAFE OWNER KILLED IN GANG WAR

Chicago, Ill.—(AP)—An alcohol-gang vendetta was held responsible for the assassination Monday night of Orazio Arapa, cafe owner, who was shot down by an unknown assailant who emptied a shot gun at Arapa from a passing auto. The cafe owner was one of the men who played cards with the Henry Spingola, who was murdered a month ago in another outbreak of an alcohol gang war, the night before Spingola was killed. The fact that Arapa several times left the game was at the time hinted as linking him with Spingola's assassin.

Coolidge Makes Study Of Stock Manipulations

BY DAVID LAWRENCE
Copyright 1926 by Post Pub. Co.
Washington—President Coolidge had an opportunity Monday to talk with Prof. William Z. Ripley whose recent writings on the subject of voting power for preferred stockholders have stirred the financial world.

Just why Dr. Ripley came to the White House has not been disclosed as he himself declined to say whether he had been summoned or had asked for the engagement. The truth is the president read Dr. Ripley's articles and was interested in learning more about the general subject. Some of his advisers had told him that it might some day become an issue of paramount importance and that he ought to collect the various viewpoints on it.

In a nutshell, Dr. Ripley's argument is that bankers who float loans, reserving for themselves the common stock of an enterprise, at least the majority control, should instead give the people who actually buy the preferred stock the controlling voice in the management. The answer made to this by financial interests is that in a large enterprise bought by the public there are sometimes tens of thousands of stockholders and that even if there were only 200 preferred stockholders it would be impracticable to give them the right to manage a big property.

MENTION TELEPHONE CO.
In rejoinder, the people of the Ripley viewpoint say that there are large companies, efficiently managed in which not more than 15 per cent of the preferred stock is held by any one person or group. The American Telephone and Telegraph company is proud of the fact, for instance, that virtually all of its stock is distributed to the public and not a much as 5 per cent is held by any one man. The bankers state in reply however that none of these concerns could have gotten started on such a basis and that at the beginning a definite control must be vested in one man or group of owners of common stock. The whole thing permits of two different viewpoints and the subject is really academic for it has not been raised by Dr. Ripley or anyone else in criticism of any particular stock but more as a criticism of a tendency in floating the securities of large business enterprises.

The suggestion made by Dr. Ripley was that the subject should be examined with a view to government regulation but this would after all be a matter for the states to handle under their corporation laws unless of course the federal government were to be brought into jurisdiction through its power to forbid the use of the mails.

GOVERNMENT WATCHING
There are evidences that the federal government is watching carefully some of the mergers which are planned but the action taken in the Ward bread combination was the result of a belief that there would be a monopoly in restraint of trade.

Whatever the purpose of Dr. Ripley's visit is it is certain to focus again the attention of the financial world on the crusade started by the Harvard professor whose first article, printed in the Atlantic Monthly, stirred up a flood of editorial comment and discussion especially among public utility companies whose methods he criticized.

PREDICT GREATER LUMBER BUSINESS

Lumbermen Urged to Prevent
Forest Fires and Support
Reforestation

Milwaukee (AP)—Prevention of forest fires and more reforestation projects were urged by A. G. Hagner of Lansing, Mich., to the members of the Wisconsin Detail Lumberman's association in annual meeting here Tuesday. The reason for the rapid increase in the price of lumber, which has increased in 75 years three times as rapidly as the price of other staples, is that the place of production and the place of consumption are becoming farther and farther apart.

"We can reasonably expect that prices will advance still more for the same reason," he said.

However, John M. Rogers, Fox Lake, president of the organization, predicts greater prosperity for the retail lumber business, regardless of the points made by Mr. Hagner. The dredging of the Mississippi river from St. Louis to Minneapolis to permit proper use of a large line in transporting lumber will lessen the cost. The freight costs in 1925 greatly reduced the profits of the trade he said.

SEEK MORE MONEY TO PAY OLD AGE PENSION

An additional appropriation for old age pensions will be one of the important business matters taken up by members of the Outagamie county board of supervisors at its February meeting which started at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon at the courthouse.

Other business includes allowing of claims against the county.

BOB DEMANDS QUICK ACTION IN BAKE PROBE

May Introduce Resolution
Asking for Senate Quiz
of Ward Company

Washington, D. C.—(AP) Notice was served Tuesday in the senate by Senator La Follette, Republican, Wisconsin, that unless the department of justice and the federal trade commission prosecute "vigorously and in good faith, the actions they have brought against the Ward Food commission, he will ask for a senate investigation of those federal agencies."

Declaring that the Ward companies now constitute "the most colossal monopolistic structure that has ever been assembled under the control of one man," Senator LaFollette said that while "this monstrous trust" was being built the arms of the government were paralyzed.

"Until two weeks ago," he added "nothing has been done to halt this conspiracy except a secret complaint by the federal trade commission against the Continental Baking Co. which was completely suppressed until Commissioner Nugent and Thompson defied the reactionary majority of the commission and made it public."

However, he told the senate that in view of the actions brought by the government he would not press at this time for adoption of his resolution proposing an investigation of the Ward Food Products Corporation.

SUZANNE WINS, AND COLLAPSES

American Girl Loses Second Match to Champion but Wins Crowd's Plaudits

Caunes, France—(AP)—Suzanne Lenglen gained a second victory over Helen Wills Tuesday when in the finals of the women's doubles in the Carlton tournament the French champion and Miss Didi Vlasto defeated the American girl and Miss Sotomayor 6-4, 8-6.

Miss Lenglen fainted after the double match and had to be assisted of the court. Miss Wills, without a look at Suzanne, shook hands with Miss Vlasto and then walked off the court.

Miss Wills played steadily tennis in the doubles and was easily the most effective of the four. Miss Lenglen gave signs of her approaching collapse in the middle of the second set.

Miss Lenglen and Miss Vlasto centered their attack upon Miss Sotomayor leaving Helen standing on her side of the court. Every time the ball came near the American girl, however, it was killed for an irrefutable point.

Miss Wills was cheered as she left the court and surrounded by fans, in strange contrast to her lonely exit after her singles match with Suzanne.

Trzebiatowski's wife started divorce proceedings in district court here several months ago.

MINERS MEET TO SANCTION PEACE TERMS

Express Hope That Convention
Will End With Agreement
Tuesday

Seranton, Pa.—(AP)—Ratification of the agreement made in Philadelphia Friday to end the anthracite strike was before the several hundred miners who met in convention here Friday to give final sanction to the peace pact.

As the delegates went into session, approval of the agreement which will send 155,000 mine workers back to the mines after an illness of five and a half months appeared to be a foregone conclusion.

The morning session of the convention was taken up with completing the organization.

Some of the leaders hoped to end the convention Tuesday. But there was doubt whether the delegates could get through debating the various paragraphs in the new agreement. Meanwhile the coal companies are working at top speed to have the mines ready for resumption the morning after the pact is ratified.

MILWAUKEE WOULD AMEND DRY MEASURE

Milwaukee (AP)—Wisconsin cities of more than 10,000 population are urged by the Milwaukee city council to join that body in petitioning the United States to fight for the return of light wines and beers.

The original measure asked that all cities of 100,000 population be asked to join Milwaukee, but this was amended to read 10,000 population.

LOCAL UNITS NOT GETTING SHARE, CHARGE

League of Wisconsin Municipalities Prepares Six Point Program

URGES COMPLETE CHANGE

Demands Reenactment of Apportionment from Income
Tax on 70-20-10 Per Cent

Milwaukee (AP)—A six point program, prepared by the taxation committee of the league of Wisconsin municipalities, was presented to the interim tax commission at its hearing here Tuesday.

The program first protests against the policy of succeeding legislatures in taking away from local tax units of government various types of property for local taxation purposes and diverting all the revenue derived therefrom entirely into the state treasury. Demand is made that the legislature over section 5 of article 8 of the state constitution and levy a state tax to meet the needs of the state government and that it return to local units of government its just share of taxation on the customary basis of division of 70-20-10 per cent.

The second point demands the reenactment of the apportionment each local unit of government receives from the state tax to the basis of 70-20-10 per cent.

No. 3—if personal property tax is repealed generally, we call attention to the fact that the towns, villages and cities now receive 70 per cent of this tax and that they would thereby lose about $12,500,000 of revenue. We ask the interim committee to call the attention of the legislature to this fact and to point out that these localities be reimbursed in some manner for this loss and must therefore insist that such loss of revenue be compensated in proper manner. This request is not to be considered as committing the league to a policy rather for or against the repeal of the personal property tax.

No. 4—We call attention to the fact that each class of public utilities now taxed in different manner and the inequalities resulting in various localities from these special methods, demanding a uniform system.

No. 5 (1)—Repeal of the personal property tax on automobiles.

(2)—Increased gasoline tax from two cents per gallon to three cents per gallon with the distribution of gasoline tax to be made on taxing units on the basis of automobile license fees collected.

No. 6—Change inheritance tax. Division of 50 per cent to state, 25 to counties and 25 to localities.

The members of the league of municipalities drew up the six point program at a meeting Monday night, and Tuesday met with the commission. At Monday night's meeting, the league members found that adequate fire and police protection costs more money, good roads and modern city improvements cost more and the tax payers must pay. Among the speakers were Mayor Hanson of Milwaukee, Mayor Armstrong of Racine and Mayor Verchorta of LaCrosse.

HARWOOD HOST TO HIS EMPLOYEES ON ANNIVERSARY

Head of Woolen Mills Commemorates Arrival in City
50 Years Ago

Employees of the Appleton Woolen Mills and their wives, and members of the office and sales department of the Appleton Superior Knitting Company were the guests of E. J. Harwood, president of the woolen mills, and secretary of the knitting plant at a banquet Monday evening at the Y. M. C. A. Monday was the fiftieth anniversary of Mr. Harwood's arrival in Appleton. About 150 were present.

Entertainment was provided by Carl McKee, who sang several songs. Hugh G. Corbett, secretary of Appleton Chamber of Commerce, who told a number of Scotch stories. Six persons who have been in the employ of the Appleton Woolen Mills for 25 years or more were present. They were John Neale, Joseph Schultz, William Koehnke, Alex. McDowell, Henry Neale, Henry Boyle and Anna Steidl.

Mr. Harwood came to Appleton from Ripon, Feb. 15, 1876, and has lived here since that time. He immediately entered the woolen mill known as Hutchinson and Co. This concern was owned and operated by W. M. Hutchinson, and the late Dr. James T. Beeve. A year later Mr. Harwood bought an interest in the company. This mill was destroyed by fire on June 17, 1881, and the present factory was built. With the opening of the new mill the manufacture of knitting yarn was started.

A coincidence spoken of at the banquet was that Mrs. E. J. Harwood came to Appleton on Feb. 15, 1882, just six years to the day after Mr. Harwood had arrived.

Quaker Oats "stands by" you through the morning

Has the "bulk," too, that makes laxatives
seldom needed

THOUSANDS have unenergetic mornings because they start the day with breakfasts that lack in certain important food elements.

To feel right, you must have a well-balanced, complete breakfast ration. At most other meals—lunch and dinner—you get it. But breakfast is a hurried meal, often badly chosen.

Thus Quaker Oats, containing 16% protein, food's great tissue builder, 58% carbohydrate, its great energy element, plus all-important vitamins and the "bulk" that makes laxatives seldom needed, is the dietetic urge of the world today.

It is food that "stands by" you through the morning. Quick Quaker cooks in 3 to 5 minutes. That's faster than plain toast. Don't deny yourself the natural stimulation this rich food offers you.

Part of the loot taken from the George Schiedermayer Hardware Co. store at 623 W. College-ave in a burglary on the night of Nov. 4, 1921, was recovered after five years when Charles E. Smith, 516 S. Appleton-st., started tearing down an old barn at the rear of his home Monday. Mr. Smith discovered a worn gunny sack containing six revolvers, thirteen boxes of .22 shells and two empty boxes which formerly contained Ingersoll watches.

RADIO PROBLEMS
Questioning at the senate hearing in the Howell radio control bill is not only bringing out information of interest, but ideas which bear on the future of the radio as a private institution and a public one. Observers and thinkers speculate on problems which are sure to arise, but as yet no one pretends to guess what the status and service of the radio will be. Judge S. B. Davis, solicitor of the department of commerce, states that broadcasting in the United States is being done as follows: Department stores, 124; schools, 91; churches, 43; publishers, 35; manufacturers, 30; states, counties and municipalities, 15; banks and institutions, 15; societies, 11; and miscellaneous, 22. The list implies there are 65 broadcasters whose participation is of more or less extraordinary moment.

Judge Davis stated that the highest price per hour of broadcasting was, as far as his department knew, $600 an hour. The price, he suggested, might be fixed by the Interstate Commerce commission, or some regulatory body. The department so far has not tried to find out the prices paid by broadcasters for transfer of franchises. In his opinion, franchises should be granted for a short term of years, as one means of preventing monopoly and exercising control. The United States, he said, is the only large country in which listeners are not required to share in the cost of broadcasting, or, in other words, pay for service. In many countries there are taxes on receiving sets.

Senator Howell suggested that the time might come when a wave-length might be worth a million dollars, instead of a few hundred thousand. This implies, of course, that a wave-length could be acquired on speculation, and under monopoly, or control by a few broadcasters. By experience we shall learn how to regulate the radio, as by experience we shall ascertain and adjust its uses. Then there is certain precautionary regulation which must be undertaken without experience, or with little experience, to safeguard the public welfare. Monopoly must be forestalled and the air must be retained as public property, so to speak.

What will the functions of the radio be in a few years? The radio certainly will have important commercial uses. It will have information, educational and entertainment uses. Every home will likely have a receiving set. The special function of the radio will be determined by the listeners. Service, the value of service, will render the practical decisions.

MACHINERY FOR RUSSIA
Russia cannot realize much good by attempting to industrialize the farmers, who make up about 85 per cent of the population, but the soviet government is to be congratulated on its decision to exchange the crown jewels for machinery. With machinery on the farms and machinery in the mines and factories, Russia would soon become one of the great commercial powers, and the people, not excepting the most confirmed socialists, would scoff at communism after acquiring the independent spirit that prosperity creates.

Our present wealth and mode of living are traceable directly to invention, first in machinery and tools, and latterly in facilities and luxuries. All in all, though, we are living expensively, we are living cheaply and amazingly comfortably. Our prosperity is built on prosperity. As our income increases, new things are made to absorb it.

Russia, big and populous as it is, with surplus farm products and many valuable natural resources, could not hope to compete for international trade without being equipped with machinery. Nations which work their lands make money, as a rule, by selling raw materials. Nations which turn out art handiwork make their goods for the few, and experience shows that they do not know the worth of these products of skill.

Russia, armed with machinery, would be a powerful competitor for world trade, especially while the cost of living was low. But the majority of the people would prefer to see Russia modernized then brooding in servility.

THE CLOSED MIND
The unventilated house is full of contagion. The closed mind is an incubator of social contagion. It is from the closed minds that prejudices arise—racial, religious, political, industrial and personal. Wars, theological controversies, demagoguery, labor disturbances and feuds are the symptoms.

Dr. S. Parkes Cadman, president of the Federal Council of Churches, once said, "In building up your denominational walls to shut yourself in, it is a good idea occasionally to climb to the top and look out to see how many good people you have shut out."

The mind that is open to conviction—open to new ideas—seldom starts wars, controversies or ill will. Such a mind seldom breeds trouble in a community. It is the unventilated mind that incubates the hatreds, jealousies, animosities and bitterness.

Every politician ought to read at least one paper published by the opposition. Every theological contender ought to take time to read something written by the other side. Every laboring man and every employer should know what the other side is thinking. Then let us meet facts with facts and not with threats and bluster.

The necessity for producing facts will usually have a cleansing effect on any mind. No man, honestly in search of the truth, ever gets angry. The side which begins calling hard names admits thereby its lack of arguments. Sarcasm, billingsgate, invective and profanity are the refuges of the man who has no facts to support his assertions. Get acquainted with the opposition's ideas, they may prove useful. Keep an open mind for the sake of your own mental health.

SECRETS OF GOVERNMENT
Several American statesmen are letting the people in on secrets of government. In England, an editor, Lord Beaverbrook, has created a sensation with stories of his experiences with premiers and lesser authorities. A few of the continental statesmen have been writing their memoirs.

From these writings the people should have a pretty fair idea of the things which go on behind the scenes in politics and government, and a fair share of each of the prominent men who have held office during and since the war. Whether the disclosures will enable them to form definite opinions is doubtful. They judge civic leaders by sentiment, as they do civic issues.

TODAY'S POEM

SILENT PARTNERS
There are always a couple of people in life who watch every move that you make. They worry with you through the luck and the strife, and they help when you threaten to break.
They know, from the start, what they want you to be, and they're for you, down deep in the soul. They're right at your elbow to help you to see the right way to get to your goal.
The older you grow, that much better you learn of the spirit that always assures that, any old time, you can readily turn to these two silent partners of yours.
Your life, in the long run, may be up to you, but despite it, you well understand that all through your living, in all things you do, they always are lending a hand.
Let's give all the credit where credit is due. Why even the thought of it's fun. And, who are these silent-like partners to you? They call you their daughter—or son.

What everybody seems to save up for a rainy day is pessimism.

Health Talks
BY WILLIAM BRADY, M. D.
Noted Physician and Author
Dr. Brady will answer all signed letters pertaining to health. Writer's names are never printed. Only inquiries of general interest are answered in this column, but all letters will be answered by mail if written in ink and stamped self-addressed envelope is enclosed. Requests for diagnosis or treatment of individual cases cannot be considered. Address Dr. William Brady, in care of this paper.

MORE AND MORE MYSTERY
A year or two ago the country was informed through the agency of the press (not to call it press agency) that a nation-wide investigation or a coordinated study of the cry was to be carried on by the United States public health service (the health bureau in the federal treasury department and the American medical association and divers and sundry other authoritative or official medical organizations, only the press agencies didn't call it the cry—a press agent would soon lose his job if he were as definite as that—they called it "the common cold." Every well-informed citizen knows precisely what a "common cold" is—though no one can be persuaded to define it. That's why it is called "common." It is like "common knowledge"—generally knowledge in the Billings sense.

Now this concerted investigation or study of the "common cold" was a mysterious movement from the very beginning. The first mystery about it, from my point of view, was the answer to the question, who are the unbiased investigators investigating the mystery? The second mystery, to my mind, was the purpose for the concerted arrangement—did the "program" embrace a scheme for the A. M. A. to give quick and vociferous approval to any observations which the P. H. S. might make about alleged "colds," and for the Gorgas Memorial institute to chime in with a loud confirmation of the findings of the Rockefeller foundation and so on, back and forth, until the public was convinced? Who can tell?

Beginning alphabetically—as it seems to me—they're now offering the public the "facts." Dr. Isaac Arthur Abt, a pediatricist of high standing, recently submitted a report on a study of the cause of alleged "colds" made for the Gorgas Memorial institute. In which he said: It is obvious that if the causes were definitely known the prevention and treatment would be simplified. Chilling and atmospheric conditions (mysterious touch—Ed.) may be assumed to play an important part. In other words, you may assume such nonsense so far as words, you may assume that "the luxuries which civilized man has surrounded himself are not unmixt blessings, it is safe to say that these artificial protections have diminished the resistance of human beings against colds."

More and more mystery! Dr. Abt, as spokesman of the moment, does not attempt to define the "widespread affection which we term 'common cold.'" The exponents of the exposure myth have never been able to agree on such a definition. It would scarcely do to have people understand just what the eminent health authorities are talking about.

The wet feet fancy is a fine example of "common knowledge," which is entirely satisfactory to the man in a rut. What did the writer of that quality mean by "a generally mysterious business"? Did the medical man who wrote the queer letter to the London Lancet add half as much to the mystification of the public as the writer of this funny newspaper item did with his dumbbell logic?

Until some one offers an authoritative definition of the what is it, which self-respecting doctors apologetically clothe in quotation marks, the subject is likely to remain well shrouded in mystery. Remove the mystery from it and there is nothing left to argue about.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS
Milk Of Magnesia
Is milk of magnesia good for the teeth? If so for what, and how should it be used? (W. J.)
Answer—It is a mild and not disagreeable alkali, and therefore often prescribed by the dentist when he desires to combat acidity in the mouth—it is used several times daily to rinse the mouth and work about the teeth and gums.

Pogy M. D.
My 14 year old daughter does not wear a brassiere. A doctor tells me a young girl may injure the tissues of the breast by running upstairs unless there is some protection. Do you think brassieres are harmful or helpful to women. (Mrs. O. A.)
Answer—If there is some abnormal condition it is for the doctor to advise about splints or braces or support. In normal women no such article is necessary, and the wearing of an unnecessary support is likely to be harmful in the long run.

LOOKING BACKWARD

25 YEARS AGO
Tuesday, Feb. 19, 1901
F. J. Harwood, manager of the Appleton Woolen mills was presented with a silver watch service when he was surprised at his home Saturday evening by superintendents and foremen of the mill. The occasion was the twenty-fifth anniversary of his connection with the business.

Edward Regenfus, employed at the elevator of the Wisconsin Mill and Grain Co. was badly crushed and torn about the groin this morning when he was caught between the pulley and a car while hauling cars into the elevator by a block and tackle.

Captain George P. McCallahan of No. 2 company was appointed chief of the fire department on 60 days probation at a meeting of the fire and police commission last night. He was to succeed the late Chief E. L. Anderson. Chief McCallahan announced today the appointment of Peter Schwabach as captain of No. 2 company and of Thomas Day as captain of No. 2 truck.

10 YEARS AGO
Tuesday, Feb. 11, 1916
A number of eighth grade pupils of the First ward school entertained their friends at a sleigh-ride party last evening. The party consisted of the following people: The Misses Dorothy Lymer, Eleanor Wenz, Eleanor Hewitt, Alice Wheaton, Nina Kline, Elizabeth Utz, and Miss Schweinertine, William Wright, Roger Tuttrill, William Buchanan, Henry Stevens, Paul Cary and Earl Kegel.

Records at the police station showed that the number of trips who stopped off at the local hotelery during the month of January was just 55 less than the corresponding month a year ago.

Stop Night Cough
This New WayQuick Relief Thru
Simple Treatment

Thousands who have been unable to sleep nights due to irritating night coughing can now obtain practically instant relief and sleep soundly the very first night—through a simple but wonderfully effective treatment.

This treatment is based on the prescription known as Dr. King's New Discovery for Coughs. You take just one teaspoonful at bedtime and hold it in your throat for 15 or 20 seconds before swallowing it. The prescription has a double action. It not only soothes and heals soreness and irritation, but it quickly removes the phlegm and congestion which are the real cause of night coughing. So with the throat soothed and cleared, coughing stops quickly, you sleep undisturbed, and the entire cough condition soon disappears.

Dr. King's New Discovery is for coughs, chest colds, sore throat, hoarseness, bronchitis, spasmodic croup, etc. Fine for children as well as grown-ups—no harmful drugs. Economical, too, as the dose is only one teaspoonful. At all good druggists. Ask for

SCENE FROM "BRAVEHEART" AT FISCHER'S APPLETON TUESDAY

The past has been revived by William Fox in an effort to meet the demand for this sort of stories. It is "The Scuttlers" and none other than the ever-popular William Farnum is the star of it with Jackie Saunders as his leading lady. This picture will be the attraction at the New Bijou Wednesday and Thursday. It is first-class and top-notch, being replete with all the elements of a picture of universal appeal. The story scenes at sea and the sinking of a large ship are about as realistic as anything ever seen in a local theater and the acting of William Farnum as well as that of his supporting cast can be given just as unlimited credit now as ever. In fact, the fight Mr. Farnum stages in the hold of a sinking ship with G. Raymond Nye as his villainous antagonist, is one of the best honest-to-goodness battles ever seen by any movie fan.

Moreover, there is ample love interest in this picture thanks to the ingratiating work of Jackie Saunders, who plays the leading role opposite Mr. Farnum. Suspense is consistent and persistent, the plot being unfolded in such a way as to keep one whetted up to the keenest interest until the very last.

Pittsburgher Uses a Rare Herb Remedy to Keep the Youthful Fires Burning.

"I am nearing 60 years, but I feel as young as I did at 30. I take a couple of Bulgarian Herb Tea once or twice a week. It keeps me healthy and strong and makes me feel young again," said H. H. Von Schlick, manufacturer of Bulgarian Herb Tea.

If you are constipated or have rheumatism, liver, kidney or stomach trouble, don't wait another day. You need vigor and energy to perform your work. You need my great pure herb tonic to bring you back to health and happiness. Why not feel 10 to 30 years younger?

Why, just to break up a bad cold quickly, Bulgarian Herb Tea is worth ten times its price. The rich herb juices, taken hot at bedtime, heat up the chilled blood, stimulate the circulation and aid nature to cast the poison germs out of your system.
Go to your druggist, tell him you want Bulgarian Herb Tea. Look for the red and yellow trade-marked box—25c, 75c, $1.25.

The Cost of Folly

As the human ledger is balanced from day to day, it is seen that the price paid for folly is not measured alone in money—but all too often is paid with bitter tears.

No man or woman, no boy or girl, can disregard the principles of right and wrong, and hope to escape the penalty. This is a law of life—an eternal truth—that is illustrated again and again in the personal true-life narratives which appear each month in True Story Magazine.

In every issue of this fascinating publication there are eighteen or twenty such narratives, written by those who have learned by experience, that only right thinking, right acting, right living can win. These stories are more helpful than a sermon, more absorbing than fiction, more thrilling than a play. The March True Story is now on the newsstands. Buy it today.

PLAYS WIDELY DIVERGENT CHARACTERS WITHOUT USE OF MAKE-UP

In the dual role which he plays in "The Black Bird," the attraction coming to the Elite Theatre Thursday and Friday, Lon Chaney has, without doubt, achieved one of the most difficult acting feats ever attempted by any actor.

It is not difficult to realize this when it is understood that the dual role was accomplished without resorting to any false noses, whiskers or facial deformities of any kind.

Chaney plays the part of an East End London crook, feared by and sought for by Scotland Yard, in one characterization, and the other role is that of the "Bishop of Lincoln," a kindly son, loved and pitied by everyone on account of his deformities.

The true test of Chaney's ability is that the two characters appear entirely dissimilar to each other, even though they wear the same features.

There have been few roles in Chaney's career that did not entirely fade his own features, but in "The Black Bird," the two characters are played with no resort to glue or putty.

Lon Chaney plays the leading female role in this Tod Browning production while Owen Moore essays a very important role. The story is an original by Tod Browning, the director, and was adapted to the screen by Waldemar Young. It is a Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer picture.

"ABIE'S IRISH ROSE"

If your idea of entertainment in the theater is to laugh and hear your neighbor laugh with you, then do not fail to see "Abie's Irish Rose," the ninth provoking comedy success by Anne Nichols, who is both its author and producer. "Abie's Irish Rose" will show Wednesday night, Feb. 17th at the Fischers Appleton Theater.

Applauded as "the play that puts 'it' in humor," this comedy, based on the marital troubles of a young couple of different race and religious beliefs, has established a record for continuous laughter that has not been equalled by any other theatrical attraction in America. It is now in its fourth year at the Metropolitan Theater, New York, and has also broken capacity records at Chicago, Washington, Buffalo, Baltimore, Cleveland, Montreal, Cincinnati, Toronto, Pittsburgh, Kansas City, St. Louis, Los Angeles and San Francisco, and all other large cities.

The story of the play hinges around the difficulties of a young married couple, a Jewish boy and an Irish girl, whose fathers endeavor to separate them on account of differing religious faiths. This theme is so delicately and humanly handled as to give offense to no one. Seats for the entire engagement are now selling at the box office.

SACRIFICES FOR LOVE
"Memory Lane" is the story of an old boyhood lover who pretends to be something that he isn't in order to prevent his former sweetheart from falling in love with him. Eleanor Boardman, Conrad Nagel and William Haines appear in the cast of this picture, which is at the Elite Theatre today and tomorrow.

SATURDAY EVENING POST STORY ON SCREEN

Henry Payson Dowst's great story, "The Man From Ashlupa," has been transferred to the screen as "On the Stroke of Three" by the Associated Artists Corporation. With Madge Bellamy and Kenneth Harlan in the starring roles it comes to the Fischer's Appleton Theatre on Thursday for its local premiere. How well the picture has been cast and interpreted may be judged from the fact that such capable artists as Mary Carr, John Miljan, Dorothy Leitch, Edith Phillips, Robert Dudley and Edward Davis support Miss Bellamy and Mr. Harlan.

The settings of the story, involving as they do the contrast of the rush and whirl of New York with the peaceful setting of a rugged mountain country, are particularly beautiful pictorially and add considerably to the unfolding of an entertaining story. F. J. Mat. 10c | MAJESTIC | EVE. 10c-15c

Look for Film
(Run your tongue across your teeth and feel it!)
That's what makes your teeth look "off color." That's what invites decay and gum troubles.
Just accept, please, this remarkable dental test which gives "off-color" teeth dazzling whiteness and firms delicate gums by removing that dingy film from teeth

In a few days you can work a transformation in your mouth this new way. Dazzling whiteness will supplant that "off-color" look of your teeth. Your gums will become firm and take on a healthy coral tint.

Film... the trouble
Run your tongue across your teeth, and you will feel a film, a viscous coat that covers them. That film is an enemy to your teeth—and your gums.

It clings to teeth, gets into crevices and stays. It absorbs discolorations and gives your teeth that cloudy "off-color" look. Germs by the millions breed in it, and they, with tartar, are a chief cause of pyorrhea, and gum disorders.

Old-time methods fail in successfully combating it. That's why regardless of the care you take now, your teeth remain dull—your gums soft and toneless.

SENIORS GIVEN LEAD IN SCHOOL SPIRIT CONTEST

Pupils Present Reasons Why
They Should Be Given Annual Trophy

Three members of each of the three classes at Appleton high school represented their classes in hearings for the school spirit cup Monday morning at a general assembly meeting at the high school. The hearing was for the purpose of gathering statistics to show which class has led so far in the display of school spirit.

Seniors scored highest in the items classified at the hearing, but there are other things to be considered later by a committee of the faculty, according to Miss Esther Austin, chairman of the school spirit committee. Juniors ranked second, and sophomores third in the rating for the first half of the school year. This is not the final scoring for the year as further data will be collected later in the year and either oral or written reports will be given before the final award of the cup.

Five divisions of activities in those things which might be judged fairly accurately on a percentage basis, were made early in the year. The records of the classes in these divisions are as follows: First, scholarship, including average standing with the seniors ranking first, juniors second, and sophomores third; honor roll, sophomores first, juniors second, and seniors third; failures, seniors first, juniors second, and sophomores third.

Second, participation in public speaking, sophomores first, seniors second, and juniors third; music, including band, orchestra and glee clubs; seniors first, sophomores second, and juniors third; literary, sophomores first, juniors second, and seniors third; boys' athletics, juniors first, sophomores second, and seniors third; girls' athletics; juniors and seniors tied for first and second place, and sophomores received third.

In the third division participation in school activities for the whole class rather than for individuals—underclassmen ranked above the seniors. The subdivisions, participations to the Y.M.C.A. and the Y.W.C.A., high school publications, sophomores first, juniors second, and seniors third, attendance at the Kaukauna-Appleton football game, juniors first, sophomores second, and seniors third.

The fourth division concerned character forming habits. The divisions: discipline, juniors first, sophomores second, and seniors third; leaders, sophomores first, juniors second, and seniors third; for blue permits given for unexcused absences and tardiness, juniors first, seniors second, and sophomores third.

In the fifth division, cooperation with the school spirit committee, the seniors were given first place, juniors second, and sophomores third.

Other feature of the banquet program are now being worked out. Committees were appointed two weeks ago and are working under the direction of A. W. Priest, newly elected association president, and Mr. Herriman.

A Double Treatment for Colds

IT is an obstinate cold indeed that can resist the direct, double action of Vicks VapoRub. When it is rubbed over throat and chest at bedtime, Vicks acts in two ways at once:

- (1) Direct to the inflamed air passages with its medicated vapors, released by the body heat; and
- (2) Direct through the skin like an old-fashioned poultice, "drawing out" the tightness, soreness and pain.

Head or chest colds may easily sap your vitality and undermine your health. Don't neglect them.

Girls Get Practical Work In Planning For House

Art in dress, in color, and in the house as well as the basic principles of art were being taught by Miss Catherine Spencer, domestic science teacher at Appleton High school, in a course for girls offered this semester at the school. The basic principles were given first and will be followed by practical applications of those principles, as the "why's" of dressing hair, its relation to dress, and the relation of dress to the modes of fixing hair, either bobbed or long.

Plans for the house will be studied over a period of several weeks and will include discussions of the architecture of the house, particularly the small house, the relative expense of buying and renting, interpretation of the architect's plans, and finally the complete furnishing of an apartment of four rooms on a limited sum of money.

Particular attention will be paid to

If you are a victim of Stomach Troubles—gas, Sourness, Pain or Bloating—you may have quick and certain relief by following this simple advice.

Don't take strong medicines, artificial digestants or pull down your system by following unnecessary starvation diets.

Never hurry your meal or overeat of anything, but within reason most folks may eat what they like—if they will keep their stomach sweet, clean and active and free from the souring acids that hinder or paralyze the work of digestion.

And the best and easiest way to do this is to follow every meal with a small amount of pure Bismarck Magnesia—a pleasant, harmless and inexpensive form of Magnesia that promptly neutralizes acidity and keeps your stomach sweet and clean.

A week's trial of Bismarck Magnesia, which may be obtained from any drugist for only a few cents, will easily convince you of the great value of this old English recipe.

Be sure and get BISMARCK Magnesia—not a laxative.

OSHKOSH RAISES $37,000 IN ITS CIVIC CAMPAIGN

Two More Cities Report Success in Community Charities Drives

Two more reports from cities using the community fund campaigns have been received by the welfare committee of the chamber of commerce which is investigating the project. These are in addition to 16 previously received. Two other reports, one from Kenosha, and another from Racine, are still awaited.

Those reporting now are Oshkosh and Green Bay, the former with a population of 33,162, the other with 31,017. In Oshkosh the community fund has been in operation for three years and has eight organizations which together raise a total of $37,000. Green Bay's community fund has been existing but one year and seven organizations are cooperating.

The first two years the community fund was not especially successful in Oshkosh in that the total amount desired was not obtained. Last year, however, the city adopted as nearly as was possible for Oshkosh the Kenosha plan whereby large employers agreed to secure subscriptions from each of their employees and double the amount of such subscriptions. They also agreed to send in their checks quarterly including the subscriptions of the employees. As a result of this method, the city in the present fiscal year raised $37,000, as compared with $23,000 the previous year. The plan worked out very satisfactorily, according to the report received by the Appleton Chamber of Commerce.

SOPHOMORE TRIANGLES LEAD IN "Y" CONTEST

With a total of 68.6 points, the Sophomore Triangle club is setting the pace in the interclub activities, contest of the boys division of the Y. M. C. A. at the end of the second week of the competition. The contest embraces activities which help to develop the physical, moral, mental, and spiritual sides of the boys, and a certificate, sold under competitive conditions under a distinguishing name, trade mark or brand, to control the resale of price thereof, the project was lost on account of the fact that a two-thirds vote is required for commitment. Such legislation, if enacted, would in effect permit manufacturers of nationally advertised products to fix the price at which that article must be sold by the dealer. Members of the Appleton chamber were more emphatic in their opposition to the plan, for they voted it down, 69 to 3.

ASK COMMISSION TO FIX TRACTION COMPANY'S SHARE

Aldermen Ask Railroad Board to Apportion Cost of Bridge Construction

Neenah—The city attorney was instructed to request the state railroad commission to determine the portion of cost of Commercial-st. bridges to be borne by Wisconsin Traction, Light Heat & Power company and the council will abide by the decision of the commission. If the Wisconsin Traction, Light Heat & Power company does the same, at a special meeting of the city council Monday evening.

A. K. Ellis, general manager of the traction company, introduced a communication from the highway commission in which that commission recommended that the company pay about $2,250 for extra strengthening of the bridge whether the cars are operated, with the proviso that the company pay for the extra filling under the rails to bring the roadbed between the tracks up to the level of the road, also to arrange for trolley wires and poles. This arrangement suited Mr. Ellis who suggested that this plan be adopted. The aldermen were not satisfied however, and sent an order from the railroad commission.

"We have always paid our way," Mr. Ellis stated, "and to show the good people of Neenah we are right, we will pay our share whether the highway commission asks it or not." City Attorney Kelly stated that Neenah has no contract with the Wisconsin Traction, Light Heat & Power company therefore the railway commission should determine the amount to be paid toward the new bridge. "If the council attempted to fix an arbitrary amount there would be criticism inasmuch as Menasha received a large sum toward its new bridge. I would suggest that the matter be put before the railroad commission."

As members of the highway and railroad commission are in the city Tuesday to attend a meeting to discuss the bridge, the council was ordered to meet with them and place their motion before them.

There is to be a meeting most all day between city officials, government men, highway and railway commission and Mr. Ellis.

The Best Cough Syrup Is Home-made

Here's an easy way to save $2. and yet have best cough medicine you ever tried.

You've probably heard of this well-known plan of making cough syrup at home. But have you ever used it? Thousands of families the world over, feel that they could hardly keep house without it. It's simple and cheap, but the way it takes hold of a cough will soon earn it a permanent place in your home.

Into a pint bottle, pour 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex; then add plain granulated sugar syrup to fill up the pint. Or, if desired, use clarified molasses, honey or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup. Either way, it tastes good, never spoils, and gives you a full pint of better cough remedy than you could buy ready-made for three times its cost.

It is really wonderful how quickly this home-made remedy conquers a cough—usually in 24 hours or less. It seems to penetrate through every air passage, loosens a dry, hoarse or tight cough, lifts the phlegm, heats the membranes, and gives almost immediate relief. Splendid for throat tickle, hoarseness, croup, bronchitis and bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, and has been used for generations for throat and chest ailments.

To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2 1/2 ounces of Pinex" with directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

SPINSTERHOOD

BEGIN HERE TODAY
BARBARA HAWLEY, 25, jilted her fiance, BRUCE REYNOLDS, to get a job on the Appleton Telegraph. She wants to see life.

BOB JEFFRIES, police reporter, becomes a close friend. He introduces her to JEROME BALL, man about town. The three are at a roadside where a prominent man commits suicide. Barbara finds a red scarf belonging to the suicide's unknown woman companion, and later connects it with a red dress belonging to MRS. LYDIA STACY, rich widow.

Bruce enters a real estate firm promoting Vale Acres. Mrs. Stacy becomes interested in him, but when he rejects her advances she refuses to invest in the project and tells ANDREW McDERMOTT, the Telegraph's managing editor, that there is crookedness in the firm.

Soon after this the company goes to smash when Manners, senior partner, flees with the bank deposits.

Barbara's mother, an invalid, dies about this time and Barbara takes an apartment, sharing it with McDermott's daughter, Fanny. Fanny is in love with Jerome Ball, and Barbara's effort to cure her of her infatuation leads to a temporary quarrel between the two girls, with Fanny accusing Barbara of wanting Jerome herself.

Meantime, VIOLETTA CRANE, a factory girl, has married Bruce. Barbara discovers that she has helped Violetta win him through advice in her "lovelorn" column.

Plunging into her work to forget about it all, she is sent to cover a convention of the National Federation of Women's Clubs. In a hotel lobby at the convention city she meets Manners, Bruce's ascending partner. She wires McDermott at once.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY
CHAPTER XXXVIII

Barbara went back to her room to wait the answer. She had sent the telegram to McDermott's home.

Nine o'clock, ten o'clock came and went. There was no word. At eleven o'clock Barbara decided that the reply would not come till morning and made ready for bed. As she was rushing her hair there was a knock at the door.

The bellboy handed her a yellow envelope.

"Cleveland police chief wiring authority for arrest of Manners. Better off in touch with headquarters, and return with Manners and deputy. Manners' story more important than convention. Keep in touch with me," McDermott.

Barbara sat down on the bed a moment and tried to catch her breath.

A plain clothes man met her in the lobby a little later. "I'll wait in the room which room he's in?" he asked when Barbara had introduced her.

"I think he's registered as Winthrop Manning. It's the only name in the list that even resembles him. Let's see if the Manning person is in his room."

The telephone operator rang a room on the sixth floor. "No answer," she said, turning to Barbara and the detective.

"If we sit behind these pillars and catch, we may see him come in," said Barbara. They found two shaded chairs.

"You're sure you know this guy?" queried the detective. "Can't take any chances on mistaken identity. You know, a suit for false arrest is a nasty thing for a chap in my profession."

"No danger," Barbara assured him. "It was past midnight when the man whom Barbara had seen came through the main entrance of the hotel. He was walking very fast. Barbara and the detective saw him go straight to the clerk.

The clerk handed him a slip of paper and he took it to the cashier. He's paying his bill," whispered Barbara. "That means he's checking out. Perhaps he's seen me."

"They waited without revealing themselves until the man had received his change and caught an elevator. They took the next one up.

Manners was just unlocking his door when the detective touched him on the shoulder. The man started painfully and turned about, his eyes falling on Barbara. His shoulders dropped and he stood still.

"Probably don't need to tell you what all about that little affair back in Appleton."

"Yes," said Manners, and then lifting his eyes to Barbara's face: "Damn you!"

She shrank back against the wall. "You can go along, Miss Hawley," said the detective. "We'll run down to headquarters, and I'll let you know the plans about this fellow."

Barbara turned and fled. When she reached her room, she was shaking.

The call from headquarters came half an hour later. "We're taking him back to Appleton tomorrow afternoon. He's waived extradition."

Barbara hung up the receiver. She rushed to the desk in her room wrote the story of Manners' capture for her paper and hurried down to the telegraph office. It was nearly two o'clock when she went to bed.

She was awakened at eight o'clock by the telephone. Mollie Perkins' nervous voice came over the wire. "Why, what became of you, my dear? You said you'd go down to the cashier and come right back. I waited and waited, but you didn't come. Couldn't get you by phone either. Do you think that's a nice way to play?"

The substance of the question angered Barbara. "I'm very sorry, Miss Perkins, but I for one, am not going to be a spinster."

WANT TO ANNEX 500 BUILDING LOTS TO CITY

Green Bay Real Estate Promoter Describes Ambitious Building Program

A tract of land located in Calumet, and comprising approximately as much territory as that between N. Oneida and N. Lawrence and between E. College and E. North-st. would be annexed to the city of Appleton, if a project launched by F. R. Buchholz, Green Bay realtor, is successful.

Mr. Buchholz is desirous of platting a tract about 1,100 feet long and about 1,800 feet wide, bordering on Calumet-st. and containing approximately 80 acres of land. In order that this plat, to be known as "Lake Park Reserve," may be provided with all the modern street improvements, Mr. Buchholz is asking the city to annex the land and accept the plat.

The realtor who has done considerable real estate development work in Green Bay has offered to pay for all the surveying, lay out and grade all the streets and install all the water and gas mains and sewers before any of the property is sold in lots. He is willing to lay out the land in any manner that the city plan commission wishes, he says.

500 BUILDING LOTS

If the plat is accepted, it will contain about 500 lots, the average size of the lot being about 50 by 120 feet. Mr. Buchholz does a considerable amount of building and plans to build about 20 residences in the district this summer. If the project is approved, all the buildings are erected of brick. He also asks that the southeast corner of E. Calumet-st. and S. Oneida-st. be made a local business district so that he may build a small hotel and possibly a filling station there.

Mr. Buchholz employs a large amount of labor in his building and real estate development enterprises and uses his own equipment.

If the project is approved, the promoter anticipates a ready market for his lots on account of the proximity to the trolley line and the elaborate street improvements.

annoyances for which Barbara had been responsible.

Barbara took a step nearer. "I'm not here for the Telegraph this time, Mrs. Stacy."

The woman's eyebrows went up. "No?" she remarked uninterestedly. "No," repeated Barbara crisply. "I'm here to talk to you about Bruce Reynolds."

Lydia Stacy's shoulders straightened. "What can we possibly have to say about him?"

"This is the situation," Barbara talked rapidly. "I've come back with Manners, and Manners has implicated Bruce in the scandal. I know he isn't guilty. You know it too, even better than I do, for you were involved in the project. I want you to testify for Bruce."

Lydia Stacy met Barbara's earnest eyes. She shrugged her shoulders. "What an extraordinary thing to do. I scarcely understand why you should seek me out in my own house to make so unaccountable a request. I know absolutely nothing about the affairs of Bruce Reynolds or the Vale Acres company. And I fail to see why you should bother yourself about him, either." Her gimlet eyes were upon Barbara's blanched face.

The girl drew herself up. "I am bothering myself because I was once your fond of Bruce Reynolds," she said, "and this is the second time that fate has made me the instrument of ruin to him. I won't bear it. I tell you I won't bear it that he should blame me. I'm going to clear him, and you are going to help me!"

Astonishment and fury vied in Lydia's face. "Indeed, Miss Hawley?"

Barbara was standing by her chair. Lydia rose too, so that her red brown eyes flamed into Barbara's. "You are in my house without invitation. I made a mistake first of all in inviting you to the reception. You brought an escort dressed like a figure out of the comic strips. You made my party ridiculous. And now you come back to intrude upon me."

Barbara was fumbling in her pockets. "The party—that in your mind."

"Do you remember a red party dress—and a red scarf?"

She laid a piece of red silk in Lydia's hand and went out. (To Be Continued)

Congresswomen Stir Up Social War In Capital

BY CHARLES P. STEWART

Washington — Does a congresswoman socially outrank the wife of a cabinet officer?

This is a serious question, now that women are breaking into Congress in increasing numbers — already a quarter of a dozen strong; it needs to be answered immediately, but there's no prospect of it.

The highest authorities disagree.

That a cabinet officer outranks a representative is a well recognized principle of social law. It seems to follow naturally that his wife outranks a representative's wife. Presumably he (a cabinet officer) outranks a congresswoman, too. Only as between cabinet officers (at any rate until some woman gets a portfolio and congresswomen, there isn't much prospect of a clash.

But as between cabinet officers' wives and congresswomen, there's such a prospect—or rather, it's right with us now.

When the present Washington "season" opened the capital's social arbiters' first thought seems to have been to class Congresswomen Florence D. Kahn, Mary T. Norton and Edith N. Rogers among representatives' wives, as, indeed, Congresswomen Kahn and Norton (not Congresswoman Rogers) had been.

But the White House does the situation out differently.

There it's argued that an official status is binding and that, before it.

Take two tablets every three hours until three doses are taken. The first dose always gives relief. The second and third doses completely break up the cold. Pleasant and safe to take. Contains no quinine or opiates. Millions use "Pape's Cold Compound." Price, thirty-five cents. Druggists guarantee it.

matter a bit who takes precedence of whomsoever else in official Washington. Let him consider the interesting fact that the members of Congress and of the Supreme Court of the United States have been received separately at the White House ever since President Cleveland's day.

What does that signify?

Why, it signifies that it never has been possible to determine since then whether a Supreme Court justice takes precedence of a senator or a senator of a Supreme Court justice.

Previously the justice and the senator had been received by the president by luck and chance—first come first served.

But Chief Justice Fuller raised the point that he and his associates were bigger men than senators and ought to come first in line. The senators refused to yield.

Cleveland had to decide the dispute and didn't dare to decide either way. So he split the receptions up. He never invited a senator and a Supreme Court justice to call on him at the same time. He was afraid they'd fall to pulling one another's hair if he did.

That dispute has been pending for 25 or 30 years. It looks as if another one was about to start now.

COUNTY T.B. REACTORS NOW DOWN TO 3.19 PER CENT

3RD WEEK TEST SHOWS 72 HERDS WERE INFECTED

Total of 143 Animals of 4--821 Subjected to Tuberculin Are Found to React

The report for the third week's work of federal state veterinarians engaged in the countywide test for bovine tuberculosis reveals that only 2.36 per cent of the cattle, the smallest percentage to date, reacted to the tuberculin test.

Percentages of the first two weeks showed 3.11 and 5.5 per cent reaction so that the third week's decrease is 3.15 per cent from the first and .54 per cent from the second week's record. The mark is getting somewhat closer to the average of the county. The early work done in the northern part of the county where the eradication of bovine tuberculosis is said not to have been so active as in most of the southern towns, but now the veterinarians are moving south.

During the week ending Jan. 26, 27 herds or 1,421 cattle were tested, and 132 reacted, and 72 infected herds were found. A total of 220 herds or 13,476 cattle were inspected.

In the past two weeks, 2,143 herds or 132,626 cattle were tested and 1,123 reacted, and 191 infected herds were found. A total of 297 herds or 17,770 cattle were inspected.

In the entire three weeks, 821 herds or 11,147 head of cattle were tested and 376 reactors and 173 infected herds were discovered. A total of 521 herds or 37,225 cattle were inspected in the three weeks.

The marked decrease in the percentage of reactors during the third week brings the total of the first three weeks down to 3.19 per cent.

STATE NOW HAS 2,035,000 COWS

Outagamie and Other Central Wisconsin Counties Add Thousands to Herds

The number of cows in Wisconsin has passed the 2,000,000 mark for the first time in the history of the state. A total of 2,035,000 was reported for January 1926.

A survey of the industry shows an increase in the number of cows in the last five years of 166,000, or almost one for each farm in the state. This is a gain of 1 per cent.

Upper and central counties of Wisconsin have added thousands of cows to their herds because of the profits in milk production in the last two or three years. Marathon was a leader in the movement with a gain of 10,000 cows. Chetek added 5,000, Taylor and Rusk 3,000 each. Three counties added 7,000 each in the western part of the state—Chippewa, Larson and Taylor.

The western part of the state shows a big decline in herd size in the last five years, with a corresponding gain in cows.

Shelbourn among eastern Wisconsin counties seems to have reached the saturation point in cows. This county did not add any more cows in the last five years and now has 11 cows on every 10-acre farm on the average.

Wisconsin will also have a big crop of heifers this year as an increase in the number of brood cows of 17 per cent is reported.

F. D. Breitrick and Sons have purchased a valuable sire, Carboy Jakastus, which was bred on the George C. Stone farm of Twig, Minn., and later sold to Harvey Longley, of Dausman.

FARMERS SIGN UP EIGHT ESTATES NEAR SETTLEMENT IN COURT

Yield During 1925 on Farms in This Locality Averaged $100 an Acre

O. M. Stern, field man for the Menominee River Sugar company, Green Bay, is contracting for sugar beet acreage in Outagamie and Winnebago counties.

He has contracts for about 50 acres of sugar beets in the vicinity of Neenah and about 200 acres in the vicinity of Appleton signed up. He expects to have about 100 acres worked near Neenah.

That farmers in this locality are finding the raising of sugar beets profitable is shown by the results of Henry Dobberpuhl, Route 11, Neenah. E. C. Radick, Route 11, Neenah. C. E. Curtis, Route 2, Appleton, Ervin Erickson, Route 13, Larson, and Gilbert Thorson.

Mr. Dobberpuhl last year raised 13 tons of beets on one acre from 1/2 acre with a return of $206.22. Mr. Radick had a crop yield valued at $501.72 from 1/2 acre. A crop on 1/2 acre on Mr. Curtis' farm yielded $663.62. The yield of 6 acres and a fraction of Mr. Erickson was $767.48. A similar average on Mr. Thorson's farm yielded $665.25. The last mentioned farmer has already contracted for 10 acres for 1926.

It is understood that Mr. Longley paid $1,000 for him as a calf.

Carboy Jakastus is an advance registered Guernsey bull and is the sire of 120 advance registered cows that respectively produced 672 and 712 pounds of butterfat in a year. The latter in a century test produced 160 pounds in 60 days.

Mr. Longley recently sold four unsexed daughters of this sire at $500 each. Carboy Jakastus carries the blood of Mrs. Rose II on both sides and of noted sires. The Brecks are expecting a great deal in the use of this animal for future breeding. They have been identified with Guernsey dairymen for years and have done association testing for nearly eight years.

Right Way To Take Iodine For Goitre

There is only a trace of Iodine in the human body but lack of even a trace often means goitre to some unfortunate person—usually a woman.

In Rochester, N. Y., the health authorities have been putting Iodine in the waters of the reservoir and with great success, so far as keeping goitre in check is concerned.

In Ocean-O, which is concentrated deep sea water, you can get just the trace of Iodine needed and just the right form of Iodine to use in checking or reducing goitre or enlargement of the thyroid gland.

Besides Iodine there are many other natural vital elements in Ocean-O that get into the blood and carry their rich upbuilding atoms to every organ, gland and tissue in the body, putting new vigor into every part of the human organism and creating abundant strength and vitality in those who are weak, run down, nervous and depressed.

If you have goitre, try a bottle—you'll find full directions for treatment when you get it and you will be getting Iodine in its natural form.

Any physician will tell you that deep sea water has in it every mineral element that is found in pure, healthy blood and that is why Ocean-O is so much in demand by people whose blood is impoverished. For sale by Voigt's Drug Store or any druggist.
